"The Abababa Road Tour"

Project N.A.D.I.N.E. an organization that provides comprehensive and collaborative resources to the Deaf community, fosters leadership and advocacy within the Deaf community, by the Deaf community, and educates the general public about the beauty and value of Deaf culture and American Sign Language. Project N.A.D.I.N.E. is pleased to announce a partnership with the "Abababa Road Tour." The tour will take us to multiple cities across the United States, where we can share the beauty of ASL storytelling while raising funds for the many community projects of Project N.A.D.I.N.E.

National Advocates on
Deafness to Inform, Network and Enrich

Since 2004, Alan R. Abarbanell has toured the United States with his critically acclaimed, one-man show, "The Abababa Road Tour" chronicling his experiences growing up hearing in a Deaf family. ABABABA--a name given to him by a friend who could not pronounce Abarbanell--is a proud CODA (Child of Deaf Adults). Alan wrote this show as a loving tribute to his Deaf heritage and CODA family. Each performance is dedicated to Alan's parents Joe and Yetta Abarbanell, whom he credits with his sense of humor, creativity and love for his community.

Abababa takes his audiences on a rollercoaster ride of emotion; first pulling them through the hilarious rush and shocking twists of his youth, then plunging them into the tragedy and loss that followed, only to hurl them upwards towards uncontrollable laughter once again! With the simple wave of a hand, Abababa renders each audience exhausted from gales of laughter and torrents of tears by evening's end.
