

Character Breakdown

Jesse - Tony's son and is good friends with Vanessa (daughter). Teenager.

Debbie - A cochlear implant doctor and checks up on Janet (the Mother). She and Janet forms a special relationship. 40's to 50's.

Miss Grundy - An old English teacher that is always hard on their students to behave well. Late 50's to 70's.

Trixy - A naive and lonely woman who wants to meet new friends all the time. 40's to 50's.

Superintendent - Has worked at the deaf school for many years and doesn't have tolerance for any foolish behaviors. Any gender, 40's to 60's.

Bobby - Good looking motivated and desperate VRS installer. Early 20's.

Tommy - Good looking motivated and desperate VRS installer. Early 20's.

Jimmy - Good looking motivated and desperate VRS installer. Early 20's.

CEO - A bald man that has years of experience shown on his face. 40's to 60's.

Secretary - A submissive lady working for the CEO. 40's to 50's.

Patti - A newcomer to sign language and thinks she's trained well but in reality can't sign and isn't well receptive. Late 20's to early 30's.

Laurene (girl Vanessa friend) - A close friend of Vanessa and goes over to the Deaf Family house anytime she can. Teenager.

Steve - A friend of Charlie and Janet from college. Also Janet's ex-boyfriend during college. late 30's to 40's.

Donny - Peddles keychains for a living and very possessive about his peddling territory. 30's to 40's.

10 Deaf Investors - Motivated individuals who wants to make quick and easy money. Any age.

Moses & Shari - An angry couple when they learned they've lost their savings into an investment. 40's to 50's.

Mr. Obray - A CEO of a fast-growing company whom Charlie wants to work for. Sharp businessman look. 40's to 50's.

Mrs. Obray - The wife of Mr. Obray and visits the Deaf Family for dinner. 40's to 50's.

Interpreter - A very qualified interpreter for Mr. Obray and Charlie's meetings. Late 20's to 50's.

Male Students - A group of male students in the locker room after a football practice. Teenagers.