Working Together: Emergency Responders and Deaf, Hard of Hearing and Deaf-Blind People

A training curriculum developed by and for first responders and deaf and hard of hearing people, provided by the Community Emergency Preparedness Information Network.

Wednesday, March 22, 2006
8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Hartford Building, 111 S. Greenwood, 2nd Floor
Tulsa, OK

TOPICS COVERED:

- Understanding Hearing Loss: Communication modes, and barriers
- First Responder Roles: What do they do? What tools are needed?
- Emergency Preparedness: Responsibilities of consumers and responders
- Partnering for a Safer Community: How to become involved in community preparedness, response and recovery activities.

The information presented in this course will benefit anyone involved with emergency planning, response and recovery efforts. The primary focus of the curriculum is direct interaction between first responders and people who are deaf, hard of hearing, late-deafened or deaf-blind.

Host Sponsors: City of Tulsa’s Citizen Corps and Oklahoma Department of Rehabilitation Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. NOTE: ASL interpreters and real-time captioning will be provided. All other accommodations will be provided upon request.

SIGN UP TODAY! SPACE IS LIMITED; REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

Pre-registration with $10 payable to CSD-CEPIN, which will cover lunch, is required. Please complete the enclosed registration form and mail before March 15. MAIL or FAX registration/requests to:
